REGRET VANQUISHES GOOD COLTS AND WINS THE SARANAC HANDICAP CANTERING.

His First Race-Lochares in Winning Form—

E. Dugan and Others Injured in Accident,

Saratoga, N. Y., August 17.—Regret, the unbeaten three-year-old filly that was last year's champion among the two-year-olds, ande her first appearance under colors in the east this afternoon in the Saranac Handicap, which was for three-year-olds at one mile. She made good easily, carrying her impost of 123 pounds like the great racer she is and winning under restraint after leading from the rise of the barrier, Her opposition included several good racers, among them The Finn and Trial by Jury, but they had scant chance to beat the winner, although Trial by Jury stuck to his task in buildog fashion and was easily second best. The Finn, while attempting to get through on the inside at the half-mile ground, was cut off by the winner. He then came again in the stretch, but tired badly near the end and Lady Rotha, closing up fast, beat him for third mousey. Horsenen, after the sterling victory scored by Regret, expressed the belief that the Whitney May is perhaps the best of her sex shown for many year of the post at 1 to 3, lawing been as good as 3 to 5.

The Le S. Thompson stable, in whose colors the Whitney Borse race, sent a brother to Regret to the post in the sixth race when trainer Rowe saddled Thunderer for his first start. The colt had been reported as working well and he was quoted at a short price. He made it a double for the stable by winning like a crackerjack.

Leochares won the third race, a handicap at seven-eighths, in which some fast sprinters were engaged. The Schorr horse was easily best and, after racing along next to the rail to the stretch lurn, ceasily passed Conning Tower, which had shall help speed to this point.

The weather today was by far the pleasantest of the meeting, it being a reminder of autumn days, and the attendance was good.

Today a new rule governing scratches went into effect when the scratches in all six of the races were posted on the board at the secretary's office.

GOOD OLD HIGH PRIVATE DIES.

The death of the formerly high-class racer High Private occurred at the Lexington, Ky., track Monday. By Oddfellow—Commena, he was bred by Chinn & Forsythe of Harrodsburg. Ky., and foaled in 1906. He was a horse of fine speed and a capital weight carrier, but infirm legs prevented him at times from racing up to his natural capacity. His triumplis were many and in his first start as a two-year-old he took the mighty Fitz Herbert into camp in the Canarsie Stakes at Aquelnet. His record is as follows:

ANITA OUTPACES FAST JACK O'DOWD.

Back Bay an Easy Windsor Winner-Borrow Goes Back East-Track Gossip.

Back East—Track Gossip.

Detroit, Mich., August 17.—H. G. Bedwell, whose horses are in particularly good form just now, furnished the winner of the Essex Handicap this afternoon in his good filly Anita, which beat Milestone by a half length after making all the pace. The Essex Handicap was the feature race of the program offered by the Windsor Jockey Club. It was a dash of five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds and the field included all of the best youngsters here. Heavy support developed for Jack O'Dowd, a colt that T. P. Hayes brought up from Kentucky, and Jack O'Dowd threatened to make good until straightened out in the homestretch, where he began to tire. In the early running he raced head and head with Anita and it was only in the final eighth that he gave up the struggle.

A sprinting handicap at three-quarters divided interest with the two-year-old race. Back Bay led all the way and won with speed in reserve. Callahan had the mount on Back Bay and it developed that P. Sheridan has announced that Metcalf would not ride for him in the future. An unsatisfactory ride on Back Bay, when the horse was beaten by The Widow Moon, resulted in the release of Metcalf from the contract Mr. Sheridan held on his services.

There will be a meeting of the stewards of the Canadian Racing Associations in the clubhouse at Windsor tomorrow.

Canadian Racing Associations in the clubhouse at Windsor tomorrow.

Gus Quick, a well-known follower of the sport, was an arrival from New York this morning. He is here as the guest of William L. Oliver.

G. H. Keene, who is racing a division of the Keene stable at Windsor, has arranged to ship the stable from here to Kentucky at the conclusion of the meeting. Mr. Keene, in partnership with his brother, J. O. Keene, owns the Keeneland Farm, near Lexington, and will take up ten yearlings he has on the farm upon his arrival in Kentucky. One of the band is out of the dam of Jacoba, There are thirty mares at the farm, some of them of the most fashionable breeding. J. O. Keene is a great student of blood lines and he has used great care in his selection of stud matrons. The stakes for the fall meetings at Churchill Downs, Latonia, Douglas Park and Woodbine close tomorrow. Frank Bruen is looking after the interests of Latonia and Douglas Park, while Gene Elrod and Harry F. Breivogel are attending to the Churchill Downs' stakes. Joseph McLennan will accept entries to the Woodbine stakes from horsemen here.

cept entries to the Woodbies stakes from horsemenhere.

Albert Simons has shimed the good handicap horse Borrow back to James Rowe at Saratoga. Borrow left this morning in an express car accompanied by a couple of attendants.

Trainer F. W. Foster was fined $25 by the stewards for the inconsistent use of blinkers on the two-year-old Galeswinthe.

Videt, winner of the first race this afternoon, was bid up from $700 to $1,100 by J. A. Gibson and was retained by his owner, Sam Louis.

Edward W. Moore today purchased from Walter Parmer the four two-year-olds Jack Reeves, Bill Simmons, Jim Grundy and Col. Slaughter.

Among the prominent visitors noted on the clubhouse lawn were B. Kirk Rankin, Ned Adams, Jack Reeves and Wade Kirkpatrick. These gentlemen arrived from Nashville yesterday and were guests of Messrs. Parmer and Hendrie. They will remain for the rest of the meeting.

"Kid" Weller, formerly a well-known layer and a one-time partner of the late Joe Ullman in the operation of one of the biggest books ever made on the American turf, was a visitor at Windsor this afternoon. Mr. Weller is on his way home to his ranch on the Hood river in Oregon.

H. G. Bedwell reports that his useful plater Pardner is down with a slight attack of fever. The horse has responded to treatment and is improving. Mr. Bedwell is thinking seriously of sending all of his horses from here to his farm at Laurel, Md., to be freshened for the fall meeting at Havre de Grace.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Will R., Memphis, Tenn. The post time given always the time at the track.

M. B., St. Louis, Mo. The race was over at the time of the transaction and it was not in time. Earl R., Jackson, Mont. Prince Albert ran third to Long Reach and Jester at Latonia, October 29, 1914.

L. T. P., St. Louis, Mo. As it turned out Bigtodo alone was the E. R. Bradley entry, the case being exactly as if the other horse had been scratched. It was a winning venture.

D. B. C., Lexington, Ky. In most cases, the time credited to a horse in the entries represents a race won in that time. In other cases the time is from a computation based on the distance it was behind the winner at the finish and the average speed of the race. Robert Bradley won at a mile in 1:37% at Windsor, July 22, 1914.
